UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN DEPARTMENT OF SURGERY | 9TH ANNUAL
CURRENT TOPICS IN GENERAL SURGERY

GEN SURG 2018

Friday & Saturday • June 8-9, 2018

About the Conference

The goal of this day and a half educational activity is to examine the latest developments and current techniques in general surgery as they relate to a variety of featured topics including endocrine surgery, surgical oncology, general surgery, breast and minimally invasive surgery and emergency general surgery. Using a disease-oriented approach along with panel discussions, debate and case review, the activity will cover a broad spectrum of disease states.

General surgeons and other healthcare providers in the state and region will learn novel techniques including advances in diagnosis and treatment of surgical diseases to manage those problems faced in daily practice.

Participation is encouraged through question and answer opportunities during the program.

Practice Gaps and Needs

Current Topics in General Surgery is the premier educational event in the region designed to educate general surgeons and other healthcare providers. This course will provide a comprehensive review and update of general surgery core competencies as outlined by the American Board of Surgery for re-certification, as well as instruction on new innovations in technology and medical care focused on improved outcomes for patients.

Featuring

- Case Presentation Lunch led by our new chair, Dr. Rebecca Minter
- Advanced Practice Provider and Nursing Inclusive Course
- Audience participation in real time

Provided By

- University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health – Department of Surgery
- University of Wisconsin–Madison Interprofessional Continuing Education Partnership (ICEP)

Intended Audience and Scope of Practice

This activity is designed to educate community general surgeons, advance practice nurses, PAs, and RNs on topics relevant to new advances in the diagnosis and treatment of surgical diseases.

Elements of Competence

This CE activity has been designed to improve learner competence and focuses on the American Board of Medical Specialties areas of patient care and procedural skills, medical knowledge, and interpersonal and communication skills.

This activity also focuses on the interprofessional competencies of roles/responsibilities, interprofessional communication, and teams/teamwork.

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of the activity, the healthcare team will be able to:

- Utilize communication and collaboration with partners in the care of patients
- Review current models of treatment and communication with patients with oncologic disease
- Discuss effective practice management techniques
- Determine treatment options for various surgical areas by comparing & contrasting care options
